

Greenlee Tools and Munro are proud to offer these complete Apprentice Electrician and Journeyman Tool kits for any trade, technical or vocational school student at a 35% savings. You can buy one for your own student or for the whole class! Start your training off right off right or it makes a great gift for your student! Even the box stores don't offer prices like these! Program only runs through 3/31/09 so act now. These kits can also be used for Apprentice Appliance Repair students.

Simply fill out the form on the right. We can even have them shipped right to your school or you could pick them up at one of our 5 convenient locations.

Students must be enrolled at certified trade or technical school to receive special pricing. One kit per students name. Of course we will not use or share any of the above information
